FOREWORD

What is the spirit of Sts. Peter and Paul High School?

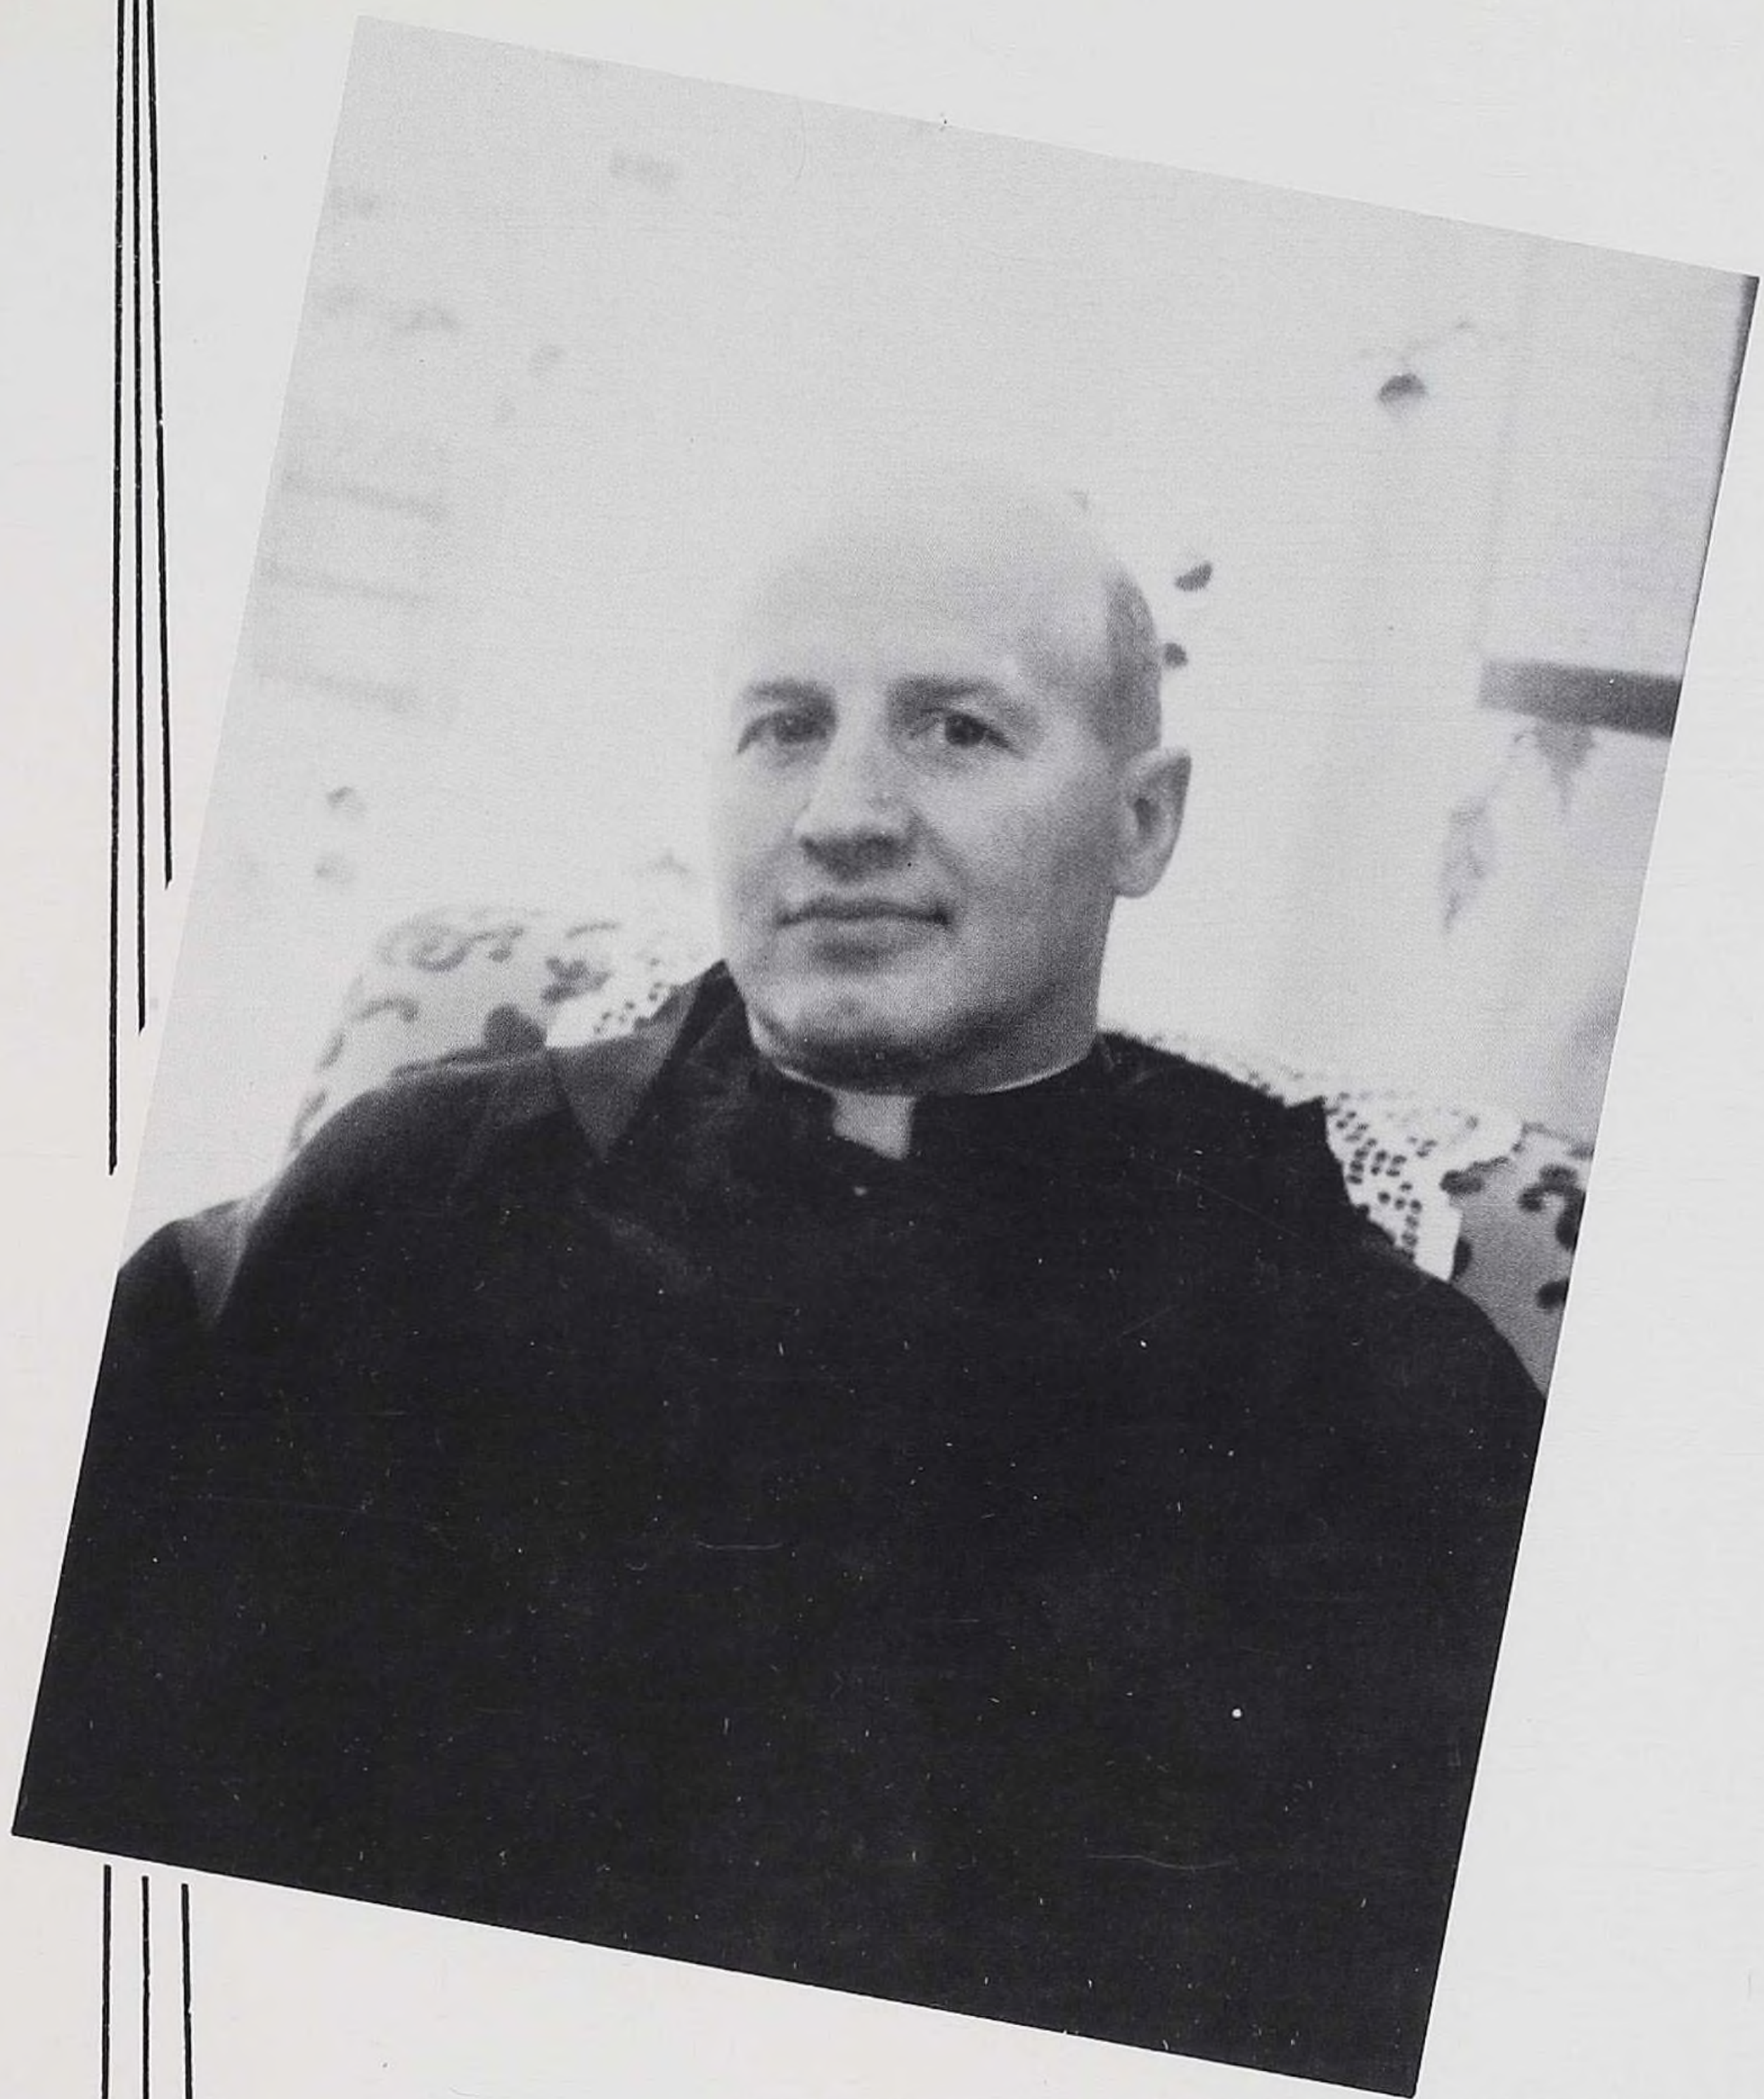

- It's young men and women as they join together daily in singing or praying the Mass.
- It's the juniors as they put last-minute touches on the prom.
- It's the after-school researchers gathering history or debate notes in the library.
- It's spirited salesmen who work to make their class the winner in the Trojan-Optimist subscription drive.
- It's the class officers and hard workers who put themselves out to make the Fun Fest a success.
- It's humble students kneeling on the ground before an outdoor altar, praying Our Lady's Rosary.
- It's athletes who spend hours training before every game.
- It's the Pep Club singing the school song at the end of a rally.
- It's devoted teachers opening new doors of learning for us.
- It's the whole student body, praying hard, studying hard, working hard, playing hard, for the honor and glory of God.

You can find it everywhere....

- in typing class as determined typists work for perfect papers.
- in home economics, as the girls busily make their first skirts.
- in the science lab, as curious beginners mix chemicals or look at cells under the microscope.
- in the music room, as singers harmonize on lively sad songs.
- in church, as hearts fervently pray for Church unity and the success of the coming Ecumenical Council.
- in the CYC center as teen-agers gather for fun on Sunday evenings.

We have tried to capture a little of this spirit in the pictures in this book. May it serve to help you recall something of what made 1961-62 a memorable year at Sts. Peter and Paul.

The Trojan Staff

DEDICATION

We dedicate the 1962 Trojan to our beloved pastor, the Reverend Basil Fiken, O. S. B.

Father Basil has been God's instrument of grace to us for many years. In his service as our pastor, he has inspired us by his quiet but stalwart leadership and guidance.

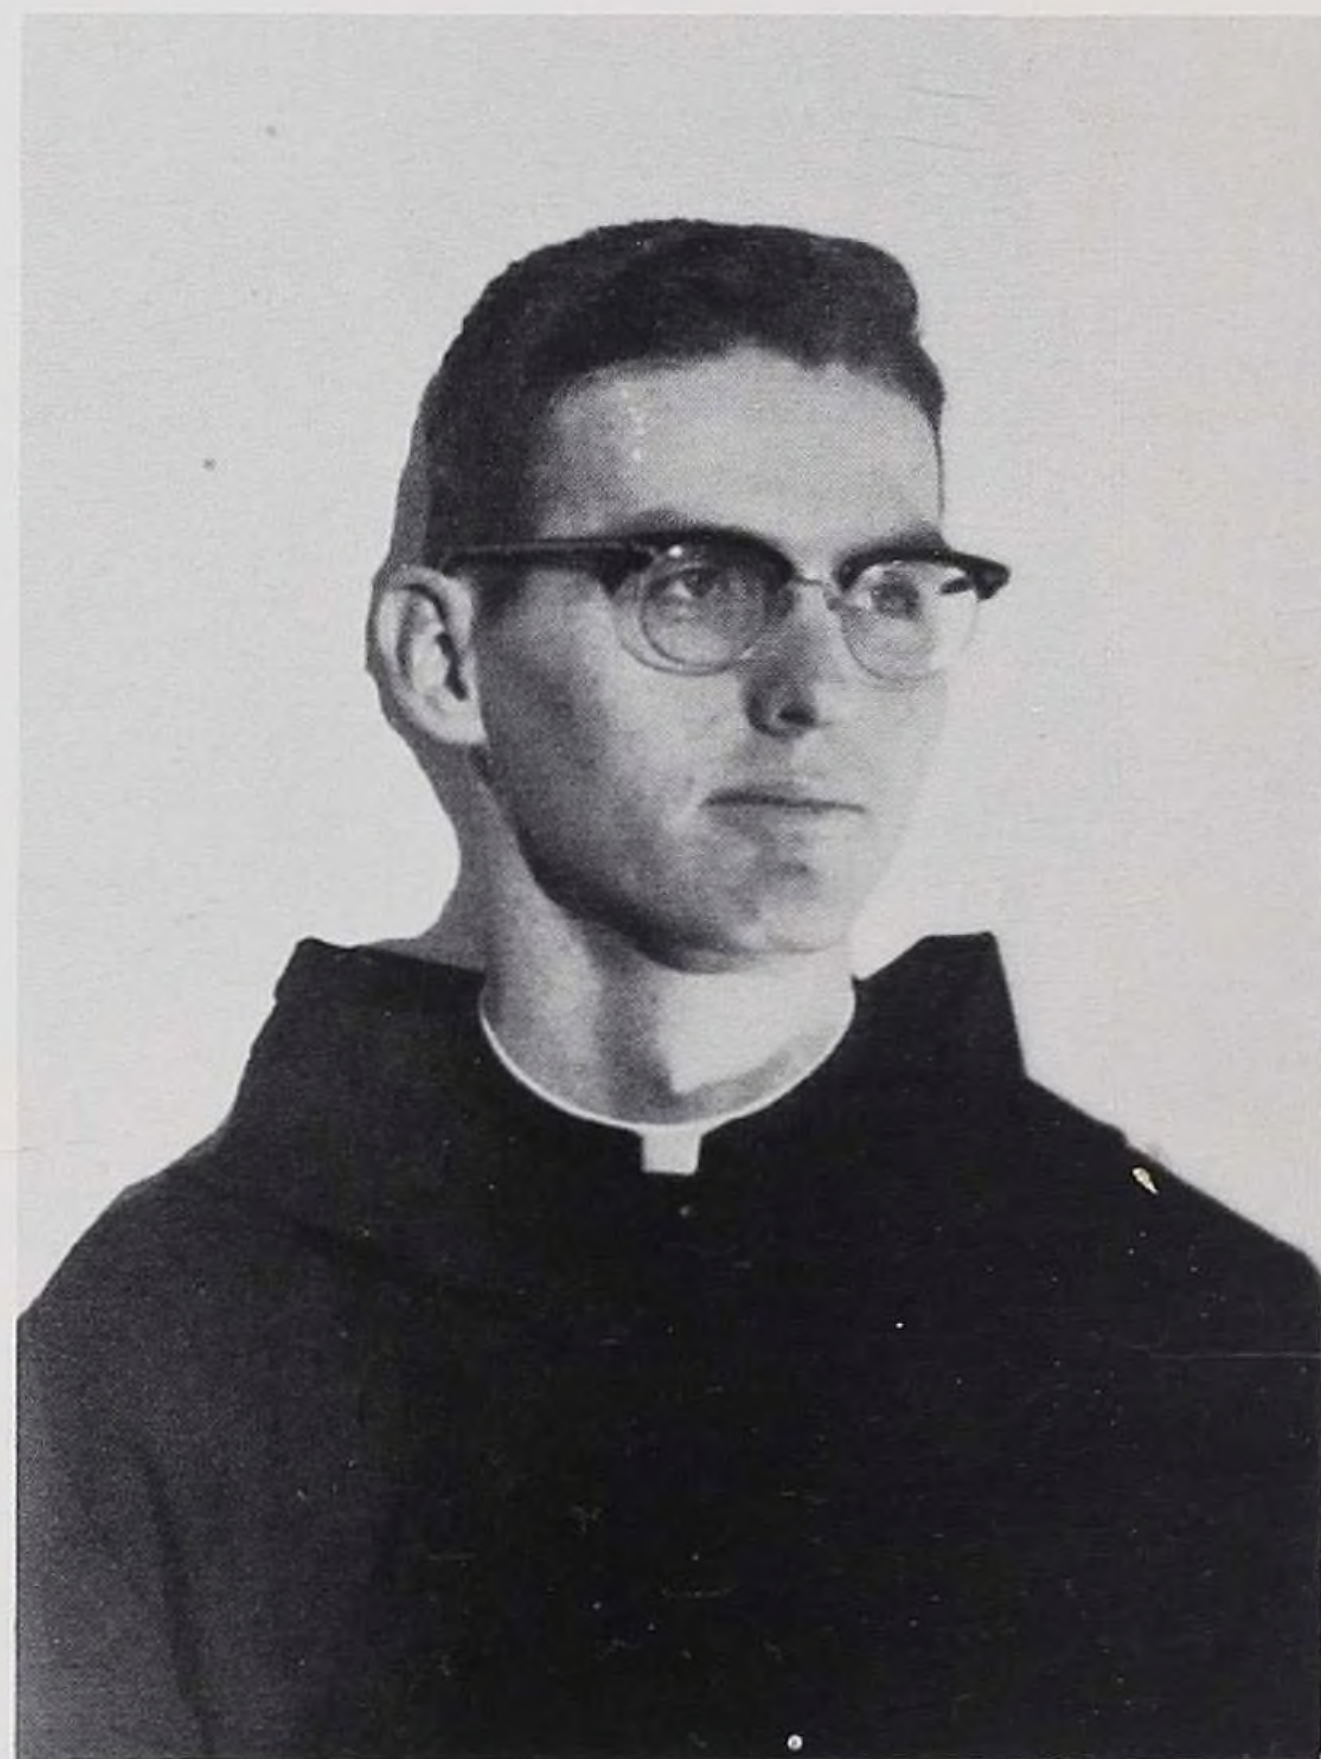

Daily he offers the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass with us and for us. He devotes many hours to saving our souls through his administration of the Sacraments.

For these things, we are grateful.

CLASS OFFICERS

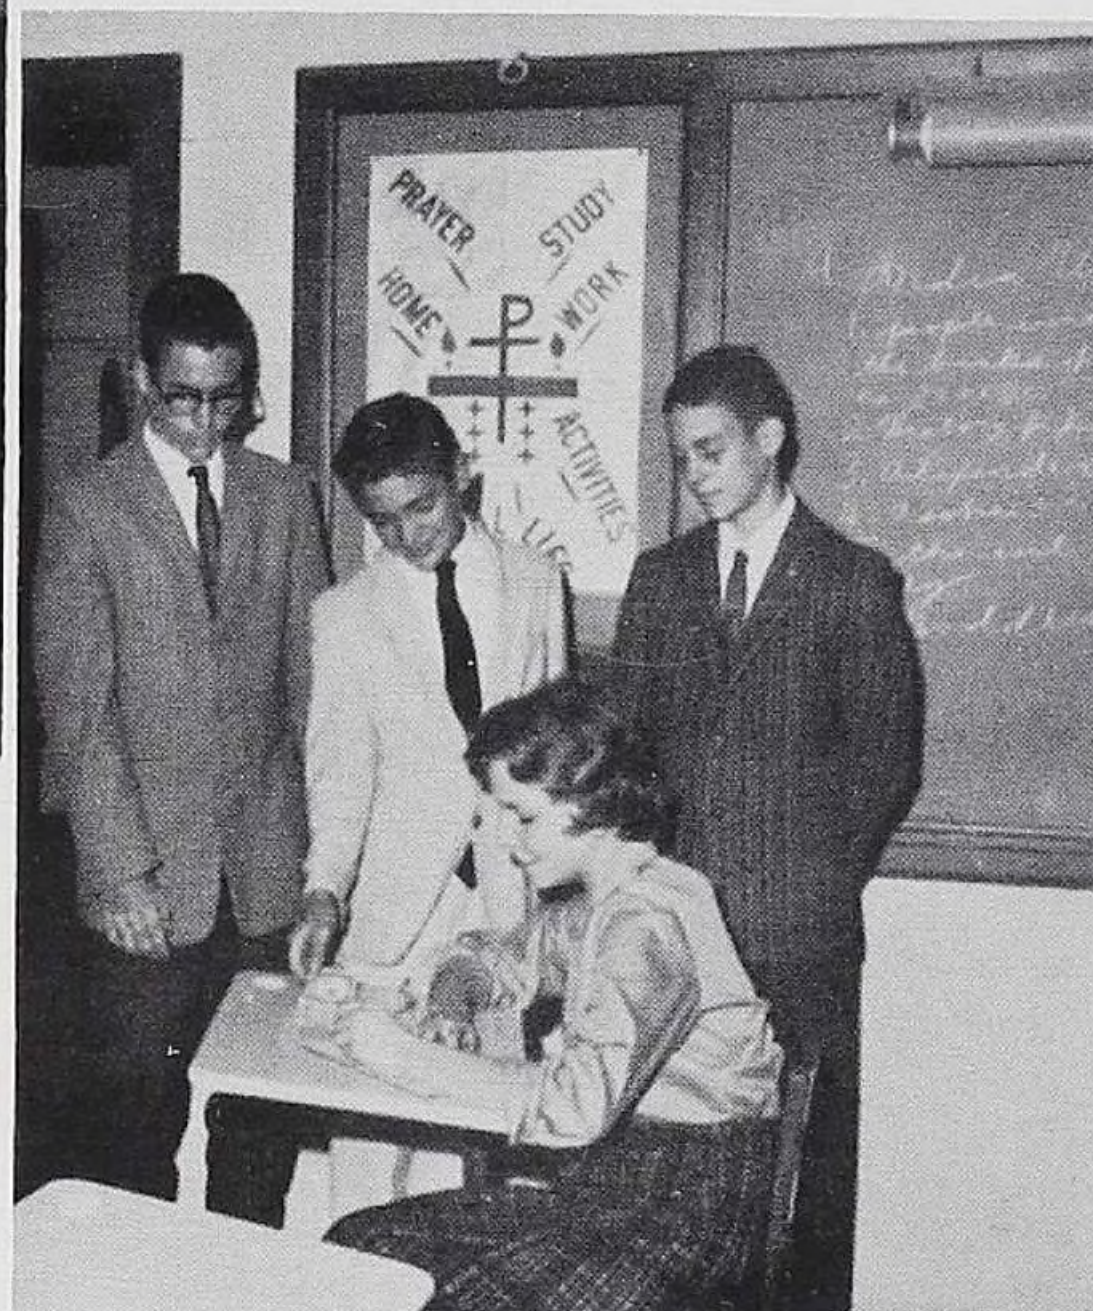

Henry Mueting, President.
Charles Rosengarten, V-Pres.
Carol Scott, Sec-Treasurer.

Industrious seniors went to work and gave the freshman class a party to welcome them to high school ...In December they served a pancake supper...Spring found them planning a class trip...Sister Mary Urban, O.S.B., was senior class sponsor.

New to high school this year, the freshman were guided in their activities by David Furse, treasurer, Paula Kohake, secretary, Barbara Schuetz, vice-president, and Paul Boeding, president. Mr. Felder was class sponsor.

Hardworking juniors spent many nights decorating the hall and enjoyed the rewards of their work on April 21 as they danced in the

"PARADISE OF THE DEEP"

Handmade fish of various sizes and hues swam in the deep, a pearly pink clam shell provided a haven for those to be photographed and a beautiful rock grotto enshrined the Blessed Virgin. Octopi decorated the stage, a hidden treasure chest in an underwater cave served as a refreshment center, and an underwater tunnel brought the excited couples into the sea.

STUDENT COUNCIL

The Student Council sponsored a variety of activities during the year. High point of the first quarter was the outdoor Rosary Rally. On a wet gray day, October 10, members kept spirits high to make the Fun Fest a great success.

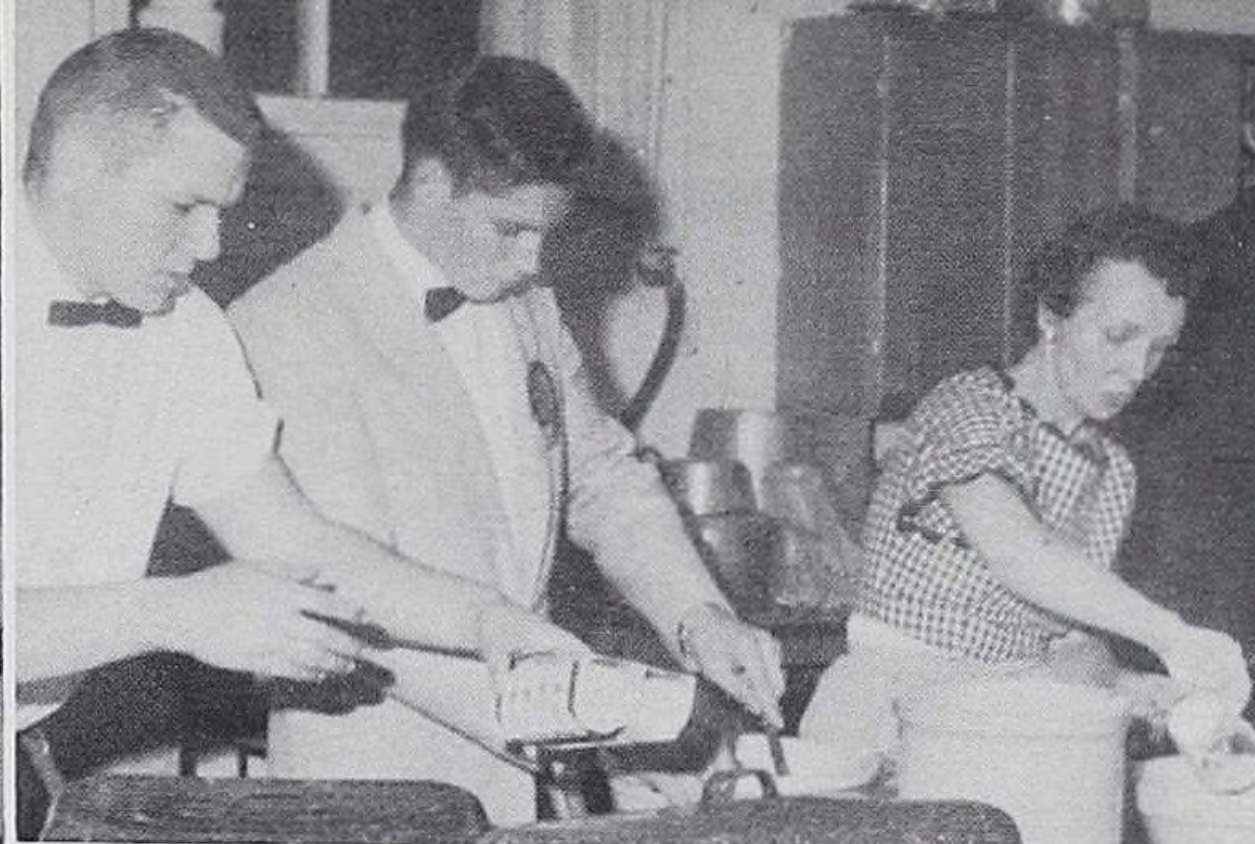

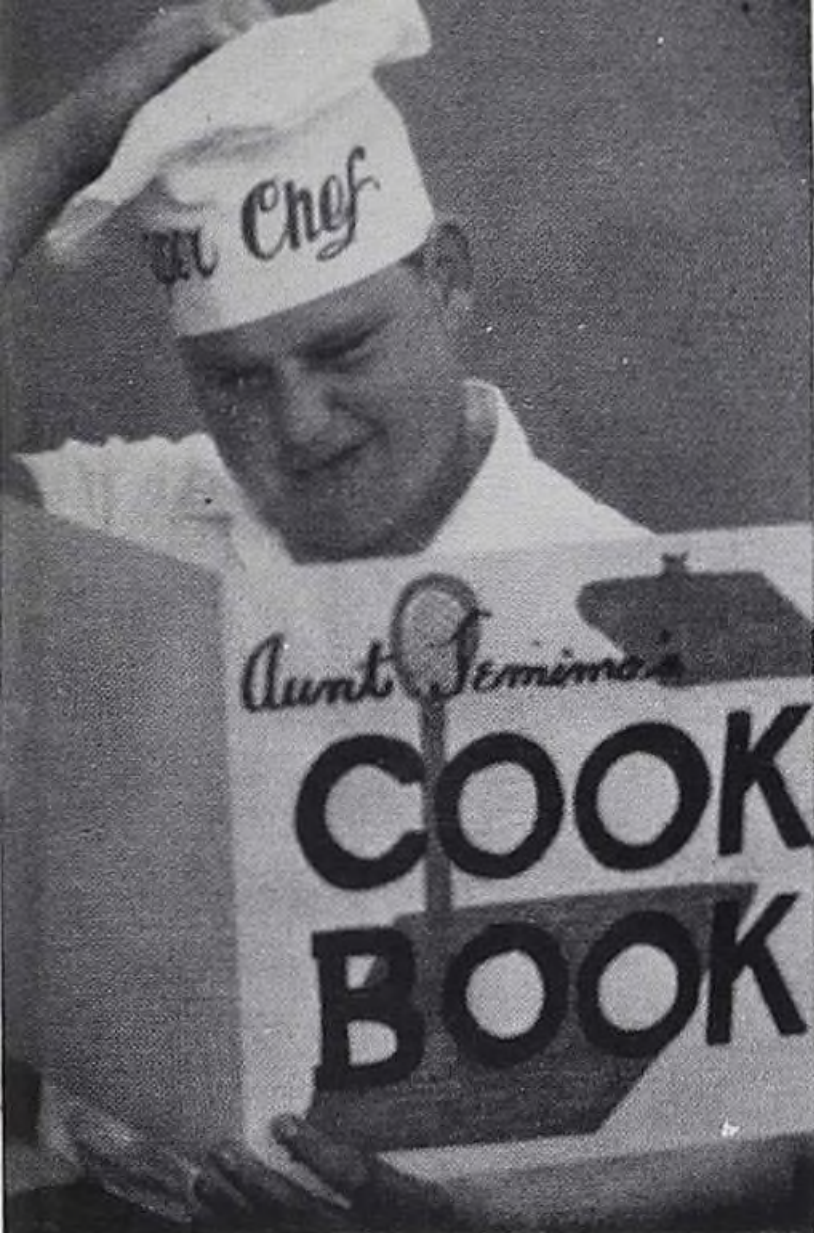

Before Christmas, four large boxes of gifts were sent to Copper Valley School, a mission in Glenallen, Alaska. The Council also sponsored a caroling tour to the Seneca Hospital, the Convalescent Home, and McGreevy's Rest Home. Each day during Advent, a Student Council member lighted a candle on the Advent Wreath and led the proper prayer.

Open House on January 23 found SC members acting as hosts to parents who visited classes.

During May the Council sponsored the Living Rosary and May Crowning.

Members of the Council are: James Fangman, SC vice-president; Jerry Rottinghaus, SC treasurer; Joan Waller, Pep Club president; Charles Rosengarten, senior vice-president; Doris Mohlman, Trojan editor; Paul Boeding, freshman president; Stan Koch, junior president; Mark Henry, CYC president; Robert Gruetze, junior vice-president; Gary Haug, sophomore president; Henry Muetting, senior president; Jeanne Haug, SC secretary; Mary Kay Mollohan, SC president.

Chief Chef, Tom Rethman puzzles over recipe... Henry Muetting and Jerry Rottinghaus assist Mrs. Mollohan in preparing pancake mix... Janet Muetting and Janice Becker clean up after a busy evening... Paula Boeding shines the oven after all suppers have been served... Joan Waller, Mary Kay Mollohan and Jeanne Haug heap the plates with pancakes and ham... Joan Waller and Roberta Sunnenberg assist in doing dishes...

CYC REOPENS CENTER

Charlie Rethman signs in for the opening night of activities in the Center, as Jim Weber, John Claas and Richard Bedwell wait their turn.

The Rev. Basil Finken, O. S. B. blesses the new CYC Center on January 28, and eighty members moved "home." The newly redecorated Center was the first unit of the church project to be completed. CYC members did much of the finishing work on the Center.

THE WONDERFUL WORLD WE LIVE IN

Students of world history and world geography met many new facts about their environment.

Above: Mr. Sexton, Andrew Gerber, Max Huerter and A. J. Dultmeier discuss the manor life of the medieval period.

Below: Mr. Felder points out world geography facts to Wayne Rethman and Alan Osterhaus.

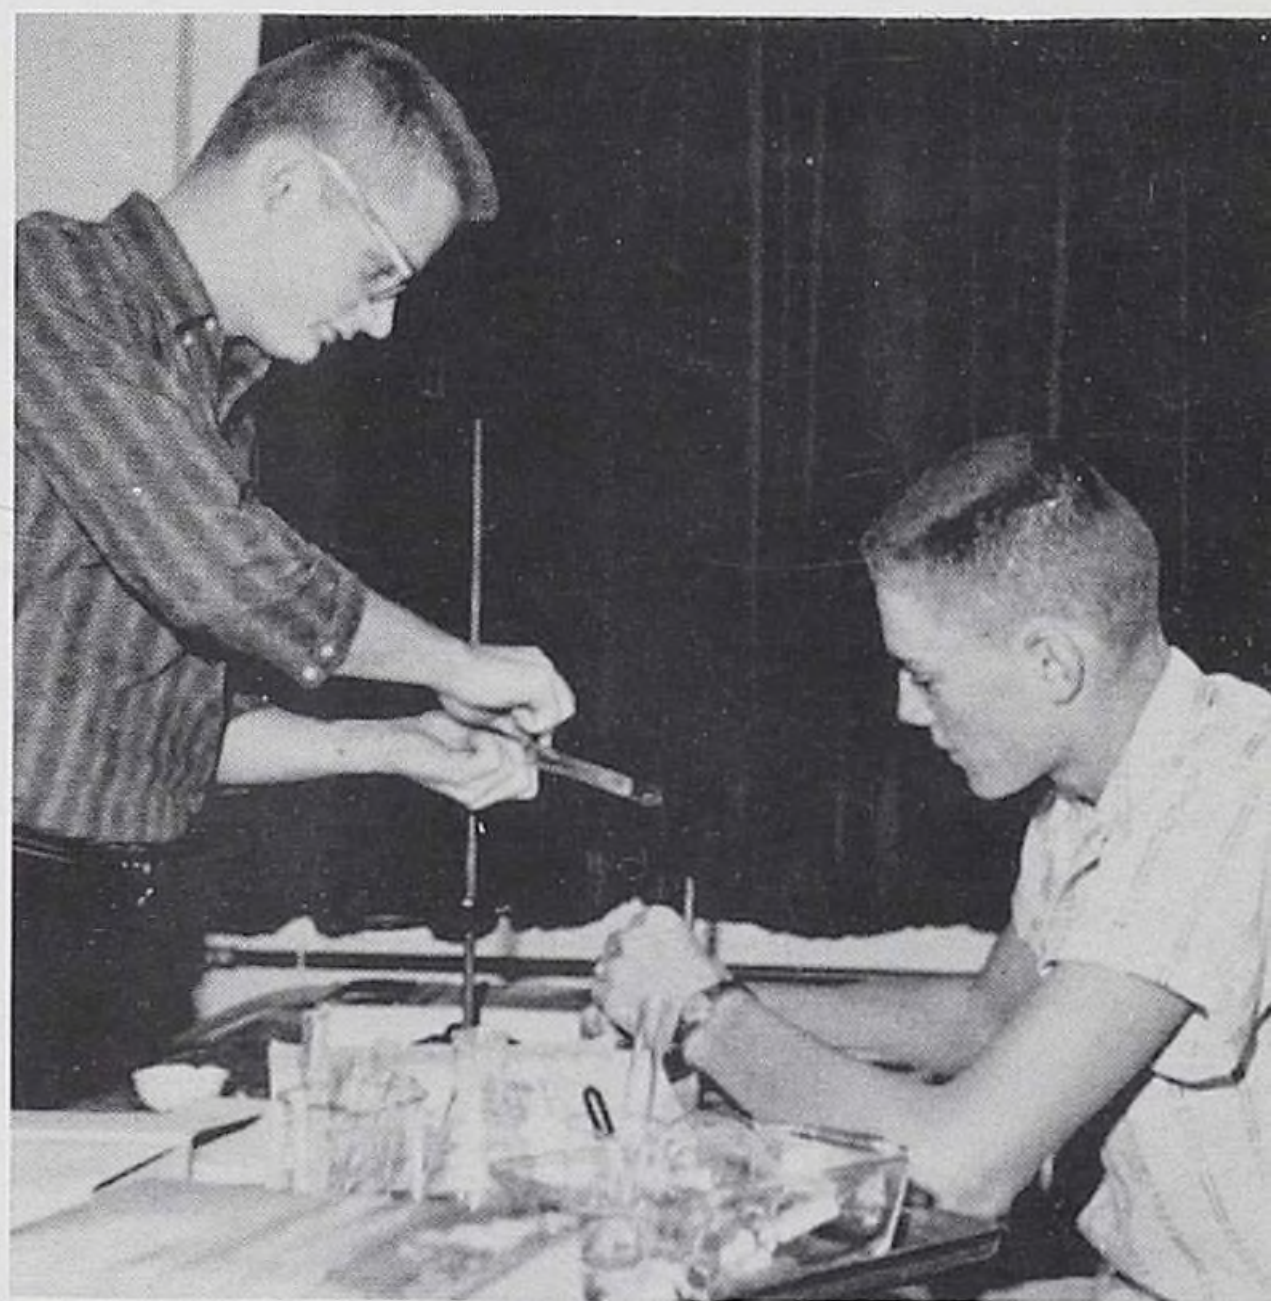

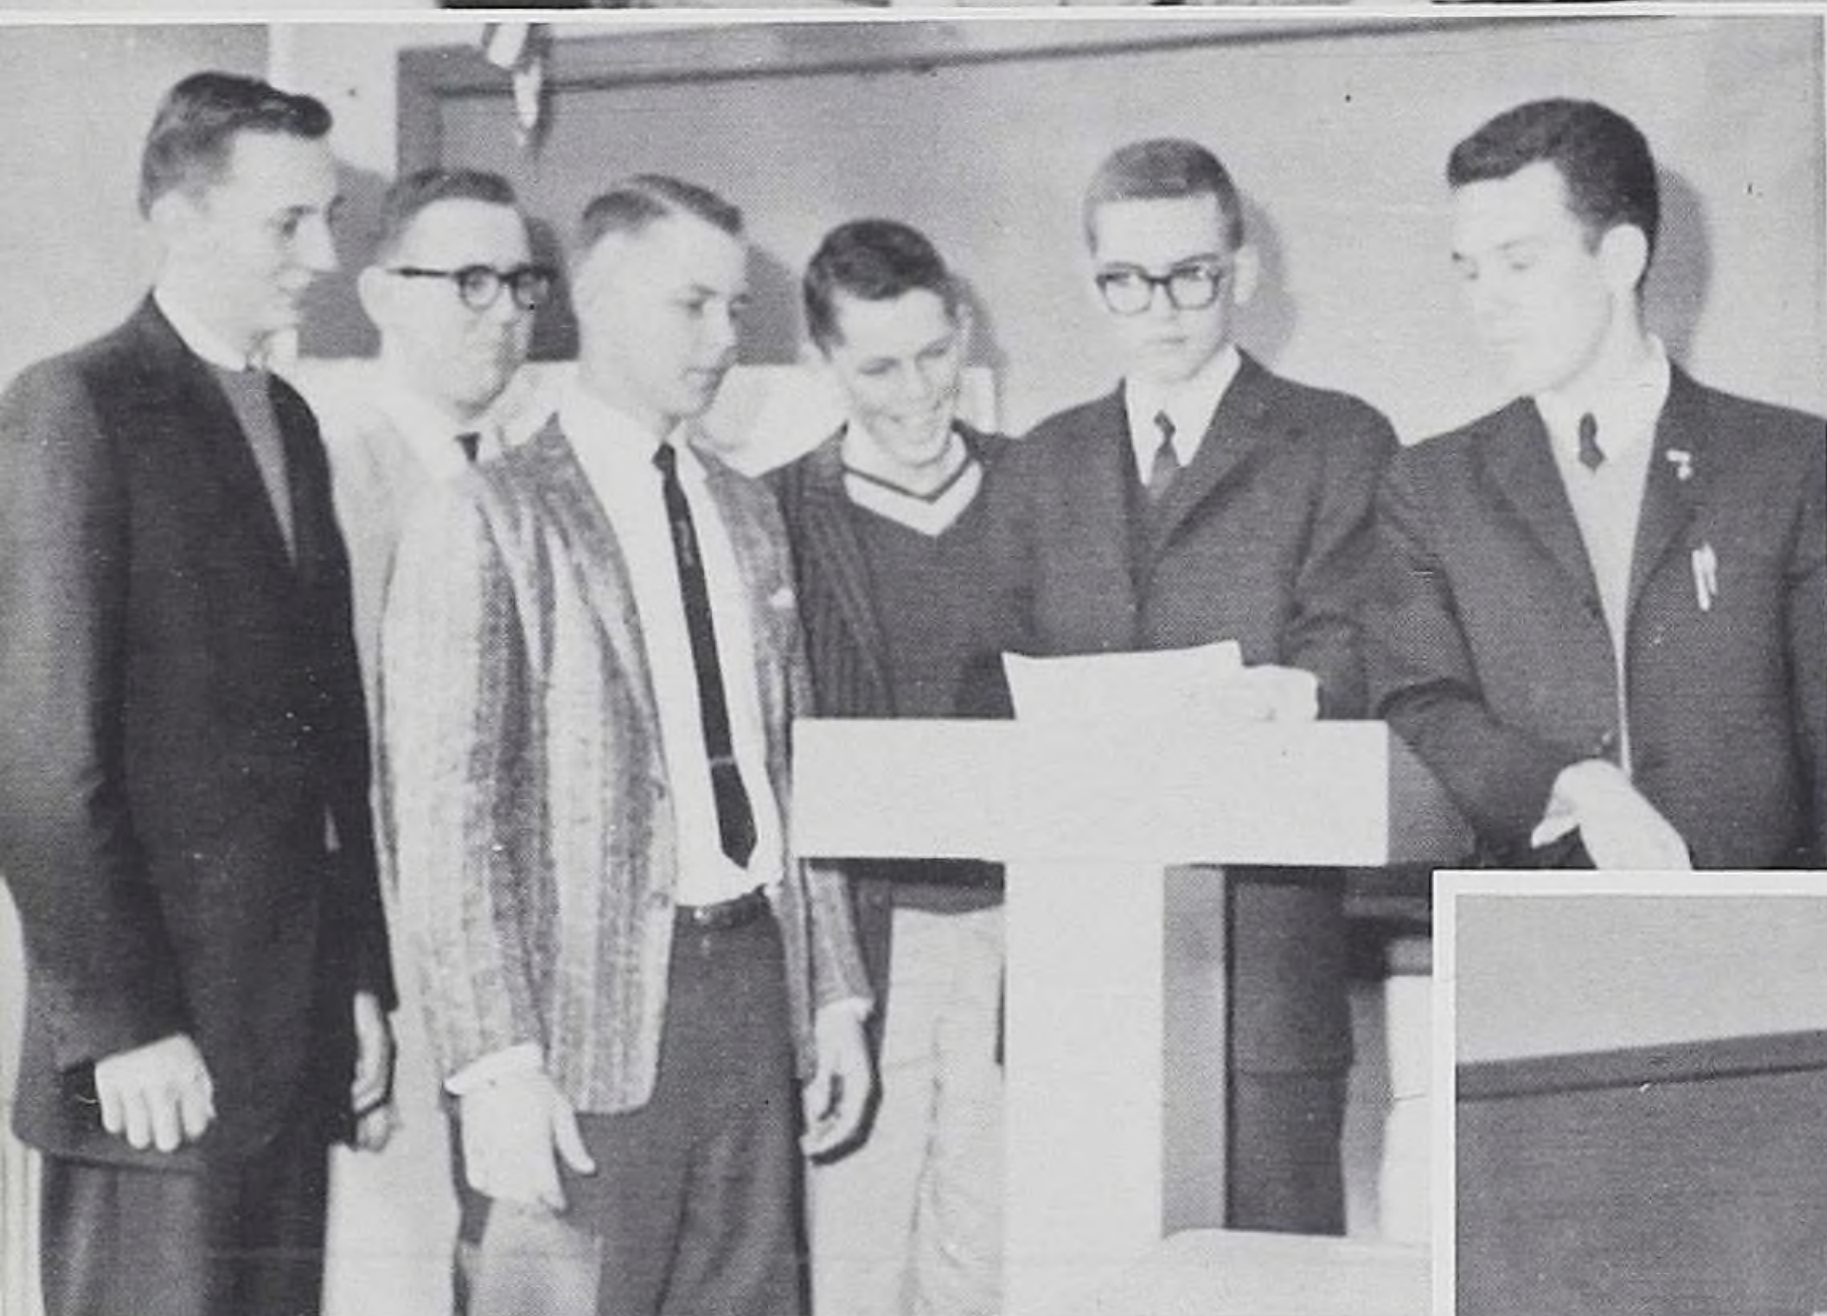

YOUNG CHEMISTS ARE BUSY WITH LAB WORK

Clockwise: Mary Kay Mollohan and Doris Mohlman are learning about titration...Leonard Haverkamp and Dick Hylton making a solution... Jerry Rottinghaus and Charles Rosengarten discuss a chemical reaction... Gary Skoch adjusts a ring stand while Gene Hermesch lights the Bunsen burner...Completing their manuals are Jeanne Haug, Janet Mueting and Janice Becker...Joan Waller checks the gas before lighting the burner.

Many hours in the chemistry lab, under the guidance of Sister Alice Marie, gave the chemistry class their first feel of scientific method and research technique.

"Better dead than red" is being seriously debated by members of the American History class. James Fangman, Ken Dekat, Joan Waller and Larry Schmelzle argue the positive side, and Layna Neff, Linda Gockel and Joyce Melcher present the negative. Mr. Felder, Dan Frehe and Sharon Robke listen intently.

HISTORY IS NO MYSTERY

Five panels reconstructed the Civil War...1864, Leonard Haverkamp, Stan Koch, Mark Henry, Larry Schmelzle, Ken Dekat, Dick Hylton...1863, Jane Strohmeyer, Charles Rosengarten, Janice Nolte, Susan Haug...1862, Gladys Mueiting, Joan Rethman, Joan Waller, Mary Kay Mollohan, Jeanne Haug, Layna Neff, Paula Boeding.
